

LIGHT+LIFE MAGAZINE

FREE METHODIST CHURCH USA

Takin' It to the Streets

BY PASTOR RON HAMPTON

With strong support from the Free Methodist Church – USA and Gulf Coast Conference churches, Takin' It to the Streets conducted its annual June community outreach event in Shreveport, Louisiana.

Feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, giving water to the thirsty, shelter to the homeless, providing items of necessity and sharing the love of Jesus to more than 1,500 people in attendance were the primary focuses for more than 50 community resource organizations and ministries that partnered together.

Gulf Coast Conference Superintendent Darrel Riley offered words of encouragement and support as guest speaker.

Line dancing, kid zone, musical groups and presenters added to the festive occasion.